

EDISON "EDIPHONE" WAX-CYLINDER DICTATION MACHINE ON STAND, CIRCA 1920-1930

REF: 1797

DESCRIPTION

Edison "Ediphone" dictation machine (Thomas A. Edison, Inc.), recording the voice on wax cylinders. Black metal mechanism with flexible speaking tube and dictation cone, mounted on a wheeled stand with a lower shelf holding wax cylinders in their original tubes. Office dictation equipment, circa 1920-1930

Dimensions : H. 87cm, W. 30cm, base 45 x 36cm

GALLERY IMAGES

